VOL. 8. M'KINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1891. NO. 19.

Talking of patent medicines—you know the old prejudice. And the doctors—some of them are between you and us. They would like you to think that what's cured thousands won't cure you. You'd believe in patent medicines if they didn't profess to cure everything—and so, between the experiments of doctors, and the experiments of patent medicines that are sold only because there's money in the "stuff," you lose faith in everything.

And, you can't always tell the prescription that cures by what you read in the papers. So, perhaps, there's no better way to sell a remedy, than to tell the truth about it, and take the risk of its doing just what it professes to do.

That's what the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of Buffalo, N. Y., does with

Dr. Pierce's
Golden Medical Discovery,
Favorite Prescription,
Pleasant Pellets, and
Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

If they don't do what their makers say they'll do—you get your money back.

He Has Secured Affidavits of Innocence.

THE WICHITA FALLS VICTIM.

At 7 o'clock last evening Walter G Sneed, the Wichita Falls gentleman, who was tarred and feathered by a mob of young men on suspicion of being the correspondent of the Kansas City Sunday Sun at that point, arrived in the city on his return from Kansas City. While there he procured affidavits from the Sun people that he was not the correspondent, affidavits regarding the truth and veracity of the Sun people. He is after the parties who inflicted the outrage upon him and has the officials already investigating the matter. He will return to Wichita Falls today and on Monday will set the machinery of the law in motion: Regarding the occurrence of which he was the unlocky victim he says:

"June 7 I retired about 12 o'clock. About 2 a. m., or a little before, I was awakened by a gentleman with whom I had been rooming, who told me he had been in a difficulity with some unknown parties and asked me to go with him, and to use his expression, square it. I at once arose, dressed as quickly as possible, and left my room remarking that there were very few men that I would get up for at such an hour to help out of a difficulty, but that he was one of the few. We went out of the front way of the building and walked half a block south when he suggested that we cross the street. This was on Ohio avenue. When we reached Eighth street we turned east. When we had proceeded about half a block I was grabbed from all sides about the same time and immediately blindfolded and gagged However, I recognized one man before the mob succeeded in taking precautions to conceal their identity. The mob was composed as near as I can judge, of about fifteen or twenty masked men, perhaps more.

"Some of my friends had asked me if I had ever had any connection with the Sun, and I emphatically denied that I ever had been a correspondent for that paper, when I was grabbed. I supposed that it was some of the town boys attempting to scare me into an admission of guit or force me to reveal who was correspondent in case I knew. But I did not then nor do I now know who the correspondent at Wichita Falls or any other place is.

"When the mob approached me one man spoke as follows: "Damn you, we have got you!" To this I made no reply until some one began to take off my coat and vest, whereupon I managed to say, although gagged, that if you want me to strip I will do so, but you are wrong." I asked them not to tear my clothes, whereupon another man spoke and said: "You keep still, and you won't be hurt."

"The mob then tore my clothing from my person and besmeared me with tar from the top of my head to the tips of my shoes. After covering my entire person with tar the feathers were added."

"When this was finished all withdrew except two men who had hold of me. They then loosened a rope that had held my arms to my side and ran, taking the rope with them. As quickly as I could I removed the blindfold, but could see no one."

"After some minutes I removed the gag and covered my person as well as I could with the torn clothing, my coat and vest, and went to my room and began to remove the tar and feathers as well as I could. I awoke a young man who was also sleeping in the room, who went to the hotel kitchen and got grease to remove the tar and feathers. It took some time to get the stuff off, but when I finished cleaning my person I returned to the same spot, but no trace of the parties could be seen."

He says he has the evidence that he is not the person he was supposed to be and proposes to remain in Wichita Falls. He says he is satisfied, from clews already secured that he can trace up the members of the mob and will prosecute them to the full extent of the law. The affidavits alluded to are as follows.

Barney's Critics.

Mr. Gibbs seems to have become the one man of the democratic party who is at present the subject of some sensible and much whining, sniveling, egotistical, puerile criticism. And who are Mr. Gibbs' critics? Here is a sample. Some fellow who is interviewed and has been making economics a special study gives his most learned opinion of Barney's bank bill thus: "It's all bosh." O my, what a judgmatic conclusion! and O, how learnedly expressed! Poor Barney! such a dart must cruelly crash through the very vitals of his economic soul and bring to political insignificance the measure as an educational means. Barney will have quite an interesting pedagogic experience to relate when he has graduated a few such judgmatic democrats whose political conclusions may all be concisely expressed by the word "bosh." Barney is the teacher and the "bosh" democrats are the pupils, as the other sort are already "posted." Now he calls up his class and tell them there is a problem—which they have never heard of—that they must learn to solve. They care nothing about learning, but they are in school and must stand in line to the toe-mark. He clearly states both the expressed and implied conditions of the problem; renders a plain and simple solution and then seeks to know what conclusions the argument has brought about in the minds of his class. All hold up their hands eager to answer. He calls upon the little "spider-legged" fellow whose perceptives—he has no reflectives—have been actively directed to the professors movements and as he strikes an attitude he renders in dramatic and parrotic (newly coined) style the word his "boss" or master has taught him to say—"bosh." The professor says "excused" and permits another to "discourse" upon the solution of the problem. With quiet and assumed originality he answers in the same conclusive speech learned, through his powers of imitation, from his "boss"—"bosh."

The professor says "excused" and another speaks. He rises with great sovereign reservation and answers—"paternalism;" he learned the word from his "boss." He too, is excused and sits. Another rises and answers, "land-aristocracy." His "boss" has a monopoly of that term because there is a tariff on European manufactured products and his "boss" is the importer. And so the professor continues to hear dis-"cuss"-ion until all of the class who have a modicum of individuality have dis—"cussed."

Then all the "posted" democrats say with a loud voice, "render them another solution—the birch rod solution." But if the teacher proceeds to administer such reproof which is the only remedy and is in perfect accord with the old proverb "A briddle for the asses mouth and a whip for the fool's back," the trustees who are the "bosses" will have a meeting and dismiss the teacher from the school. Just let a democrat adyocate a sound remedy for the cure of the financial disease that has swept our country like a blight and all the "bossess" will push the prod against their idiotic toadies, who with their drooling twaddle mock him and seek thereby to make all the world believe that his doctrine sinks at once to the plane of idiotic "bosh" and ignorance from which they view it. However sound or unsound Mr. Gibb's bank bill may appear under a crucial test he has at least shown a willingness to investigate the cause of our financial distress and has exhibited the political and moral courage to propose a measure for investigation which is outside of, and for superior to, the old political rot, the filth and stench, of which is a sweet savor in the nostrils of those who have not the mind to understand him, which those who would despise government by the people if their capabilities would permit such mental activity, sustain and in the advocacy of which they have not a modicum of individuality left.

But Mr. Gibbs is human and can not perform human impossibilities and it will not be expected of him to organize political bodies, which will be able to send a single ray of light, be it ever so luminous, that will serve to lessen the darkness in the "boss" and "boodle" camp where political stultifaction is the most prominent virtue (?), the odor of political putrification the sweetest (?) scent and the howls of the demagogue the most charming (?) music. Not hideous night!

Go on Mr. Gibbs for if you or some one does not throw over-board the petrifying bodies of "dead" weight demagogues, who hang on the sides or lie lifeless upon the deck of the grand old ship she will soon sink beneath the angry political wave to rise no more; the "rats" have left her and the sailors are getting the life-boats ready. They will soon be afloat in the sea of the great political sea looking for a safer ship. The only order they will obey is to clear the deck of its dead and cut loose the worthless hangers on. I. X. PECT.

The editor of the Ladonia News seems to have entertained grave fears in regard to the intentions of Col. Harry Tracy, relative to the meeting between Culberson and that gentleman at Bonham. It is probably now much clearer to the mind of the editor of the Ladonia News why Tracy was not sick nor the trains behind time. Our mission being an educational one we are inclined to answer another matter that seems to be weighing heavily upon the anxious mind of the same editor that is, how will the farmer ever pay the government the 80 per cent received. This question will be quite a simple affair after the editor has told us how he pays the national banker after receiving 90 or 95 per cent on cotton stored in one of the various cotton yards so common in Texas. Try the latter, Brer Harkins, and see if you don't catch onto the solution.—Southern Mercury.

We would like to know of what earthly use is the counsel of men who have no opinion of their own, until they know which way the political cat is most likely to jump?—McKinney Citizen.

That's the size of it. If you don't like the sub-treasury plan or Gov. Barnett Gibb's plan, trot out your own ideas. Boot blacks even are laughing a negative politicians.—Southern Mercury.

CHILDREN

Are always liable to sudden and severe colds, to croup, sore throat, lung fever, etc. Remedies, to be effective, must be administered without delay. Nothing is better adapted for such emergencies than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It soothes the inflamed membrane, promotes expectoration, relieves coughing, and induces sleep. The prompt use of this medicine has saved innumerable lives, both of young and old.

"One of my children had croup. The case was attended by our physician, and was supposed to be well under control. One night I was startled by the child's hard breathing, and on going to it found it

Strangling.

It had nearly ceased to breathe. Realizing that the child's alarming condition had become possible in spite of the medicine it had taken, I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Having a part of a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three doses, at short intervals, and anxiously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given, the child's breathing grew easier, and in a short time it was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is alive and well to-day, and I do not hesitate to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved its life."—C. J. Wooldridge, Wortham, Texas.

"The best banking system the world ever saw" seems to be in a bad way just at present. The Comptroller of the Currency don't appear to control, and the whole thing is a "go as you please" affair after the people have deposited their money. The additional security to depositors claimed for this system over the old private banks is all a delusion and a snare, as shown by the recent Philadelphia failure.—National Economist.

WOMEN.

The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules the world.

The influence of a mother, the influence of a sister, the influence of a wife. The world feels this influence. It shapes the destiny of men. For a mother's sake, for a sister's sake, for a wife's sake a man will strive to be honorable. He becomes ambitious. He becomes successful. Happy the household where the women folks are cheerful, contented, and happy. How pitable the home where mother, sister, or wife lies ill. How grand the remedy that is suited to the ills of womanhood and that will restore nervous, sickly, aching, despondent women to health and strength.

WEAK WOMEN

Such a remedy is Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla. It is eminently the best remedy for the weaknesses and distress incident to and following a condition of disordered female functions. It revives, strengthens, and regulates the feminine constitution. Mrs. Mary F. Wilkinson, Jackson, Tenn., writes:

"I was a very healthy woman before my marriage, but dating from a miscarriage, my health got to be very bad. My complexion became sallow. I became nervous and sleepless; I grew thin and despondent. My appetite was fickle, and what I ate laid like lead upon my stomach. My habits were irregular, and I suffered much pain. I used prescriptions of several good doctors, but my ailments increased. A bearing down pain about my back and loins seemed as if it would kill me. I was subject to frequent headaches and bilious attacks. In this condition I began a use of Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla. It seemed precisely suited to my condition. Every spoonful seemed to go to the right spot. I soon showed great improvement, and my friends rejoiced at my returning health. I used it during the months of March and April, and give it all the credit for my present enjoyment of life and good health. It is a boon to weak and suffering women."

STRONG.

Nelly Davis, Helena, Ark., writes: "Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla has improved my health wonderfully, also greatly improved my looks. I had eruptions on my skin but they have disappeared, and I was very weak, with no appetite, and at times suffered great pain, but now I feel quite well again."

☞ Many a pale and sickly looking little child has been saved by its good mother giving it Dr. John Bull's Worm Destroyers. They taste good. Price 25 cents.

☞ Nothing makes a person feel so bad as a touch of chills and fever. Smith's Tonic Syrup is pleasant to take, and cures this ailment quickly.

The campmeeting!

They are coming.

Prepare for a good time.

The combine is meeting with an honest opposition.

Recognition is sometimes only obtained by strong and earnest demands.

Everybody is turning politician. That is right, or to say the least, it is a liberty hat should be enjoyed by every American citizen.

Wanted! A substitute term for the word boom. It is not strong enough to express the progress of the Alliance.

A special edition of the Corsicana Light comes to us this week with a brilliant write up of its lovely city and is profusely illustrated.

Harry Tracy challenged Hon. Roger Q. Mills to meet him in debate at Georgetown, Texas, July 11th, but the Hon. Rogerous politely declined, because he was not amorous of being chawed up and spit out. If giants, like Dave Culberson, can't meet the storm there's no use in trying further—and Mr. Mills knows it.—Jefferson Jimplicute.

Better Prices.

Never in the history of our country was crop prospects so bright as at present. Such a condition should guarantee prosperous times. This should especially be so among the great producing masses. If the producer fails to make a good crop all the world expects him to be in a financial embarrassment—certainly, if he has nothing to sell he expects nothing. He has a right, however, when he raises a good crop, to expect a remuneration sufficient to "make up for lost time," or to heal the wounds of prverty caused by the misfortune of the past.

Just think, only a few months ago farmers from all over the county came to McKinney and paid from 50 to 70 cents per bushel for oats and 90 per bushel for corn. Suppose they have a large crop for sale this season what will they get for it? Already oats have been sold for 25 cents per bushel. Admit that the supply controls the market and that speculators are not to be blamed, is it not right if the farmer can, by any legal way, obtain a method by which he may hold his crop for "better prices?"

The products of a nation is the wealth of that nation. Capital bulks the products, and if the market does not suit, it borrows money (often from the government), thus enabling it to hold until prices are better. The farmer is demanding better prices. If he obtains it the whole people will be benefitted.

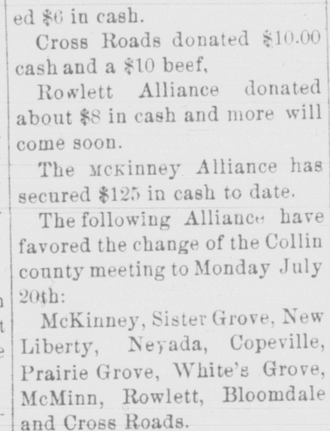
STILL IT GROWS.

The Interest in the Camp-meeting

CONTINUES TO EXPAND.



Reports from all over the county are coming in rapidly which indicates that everybody and his dogs will be on hand at the camp-meeting on July 21 to 25 next at White's Grove to enjoy an intellectual feast.

Spring Hill Alliance sends us word that already it has donated $8 in cash, one beef and two sheep for the occasion.

Nevada Alliance has donated $5 in cash.

Bloomdale Alliance subscribed $6 in cash.

Cross Roads donated $10.00 cash and a $10 beef,

Rowlett Alliance donated about $8 in cash and more will come soon.

The McKinney Alliance has secured $125 in cash to date.

The following Alliance have favored the change of the Collin county meeting to Monday July 20th:

McKinney, Sister Grove, New Liberty, Nevada, Copeville, Prairie Grove, White's Grove, McMinn, Rowlett, Bloomdale and Cross Roads.

The following explains itself:

K. K. Kerr, Vineland, Texas,

Dear sir and friend:—I have yours of the 1st, inst., stating that you had changed the time of the meeting from July 14th to July 20th. I shall be present if my health and business arrangements will permit. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to address the people of Texas as we number among them as subscribers for our paper over 6,000. If any other changes occur please notify me. Yours truly, Agent for the Ex-Confederate Veteran Association of Collin County.

Thomas Hogge is the authorized agent of the ex-Confederate Veteran Association of Collin county to sell, for the benefit of said association, the "Memorial Volume of ex-President Jefferson Davis," the "World of Knowledge" and "Successful Life." The commissions arising from the sales, which, by the publishers, have been made very liberal, go to the association and are to be used for the charitable purposes of the association. Such as providing for the needy widows of ex-Confederate Veterans etc. The association are undertaking to raise a sufficient fund to enable them to meet out charity to those that need it and solicit, through their agent, Mr. Hogge, from the public generally, and especially would they ask help from their brethren, both in and out of the association.

We take pleasure in recommending the "Memorial Volume" as the best life of Mr. Davis yet published and think every Confederate should buy it. The other two books to be sold by Mr. Hogge are also splendid publications and are heartily commended to the public. The county will be canvassed by Mr. Hogge and such sub-agents as he may commission, and the friends of the cause are asked to give him their help. The "Memorial Volume" can also be had by calling at my office.

H. C. MACK.
Chairman Com. Ways & Means ex Confederate Veteran Association of Collin county.

Congress has not been at a loss in thirty years to find a constitutional sanction for fostering the privileges of the rich, but it has always been in doubt when it comes to finding a constitutional sanction for protecting the rights of the poor.

FROM LONE ELM.

Society Dots—A Difficulty.

LONE ELM, JUNE 15, '91,

Editor Democrat:

Fishing is the order of the day and music school at night.

L. J. Shook, one of Cottage Hill's energetic young men was in Lone Elm Saturday on business.

A. T. Buckley made a business trip to McKinney Saturday last.

W. S. Vernon went to Cottage Hill Sunday to see his best girl.

Walter Alexander made a flying trip to Weston Saturday evening.

Rev. Jas. Coleman filled his regular appointment here last Sunday at 11 o'clock.

W. T. Alexander went to see his best girl at Roland Sunday.

W. I. Chipman, Joe Farnworth and Ed Chipman went to McKinney Monday on business.

Late Wednesday evening a serious difficulty occurred here between Walter Jennings and John Lanear, in which the former was knocked down and pretty roughly handled. John Lanear was seriously if not fatally cut. The difficulty occurred over a report, which had been circulated. The cut is said to be about five inches across the upper portion of the bowels.

The charming Miss Alice Smith, of Weston, was visiting relatives and friends here Sunday.

Saturday evening last one of the most enjoyable socials of the season was given at the hospitable home of I. C. Chipman, by their two charming daughters, Misses Sallie and Amanda. The following young ladies and gentlemen were present: Misses Alice Smith, Callie Broles, Cora Smith, Rosa Buckley, Flora Allen, Mary Fugett, Mollie Allen, Annie Jennings, Ella Allen, Bettie Smith, Sallie Chipman, Mollie Blake, Mary Alexander, Pearl Fugett, Amanda Chipman and Amanda Fugett. Messrs. T. A. Farnsworth, W. I. Chipman, W. S. Vernon, J. H. Young, J. C. Baker, A. C. Hearch, Walter Alexander, Joe Allen, B. A. Choat, Fred Vernon, D. Fugett, Ed Chipman, John Jones, W. D. Alexander, Wm. Rivers, John Kellum, O. P. Cox, N. Mark and I. C. Chipman. About 9 o'clock the crowd assembled and our excellent hostess Misses Sallie and Amanda not liking the position of their guests invented a scheme to make things more agreeable by writing the names of the young ladies on a slip of paper and letting the young gentlemen draw one of these slips each, thereby giving all a chance to entertain and be entertained These slips were drawn every twenty minutes, which caused a general mixture and change every one having to talk. This was a good scheme as a fellow generally run down in less than twenty minutes, unless he is with his best girl. Next thing in order was the partaking of refreshments, which was bountifully served. We all had a most delightful time for which we are indebted to Mrs. Chipman and her charming daughters, Misses Lou and Sallie. Who will be next to throw open their doors. FRIEND.

County Alliance.

To the Alliance fraternity of Collin county: The next regular meeting of the Collin county Farmers' Alliance, having been extended from the 14th to the 20th of July, same will convene with White's Grove Alliance on Monday, the 20th of July 1891. Sub-Alliances are requested to be on hand, promptly on Monday at 9 o'clock a. m., with a view of getting as much of the business of the county Alliance done before speaking.

D. C. FLIPPIN, Pres.
J. Y. BROOKS, Sec'ty.

The Alliance governor of South Carolina vigorously opposes the McCure sub-treasury scheme.—Farm and Ranch.

James S. Hogg also went back on the Alliance and its demands after election. He and Tillman were mute as mice and in perfect line with the Alliance before election, The fact that a cause has traitors within or enemies without is no evidence that it is not sound.

North Texas Medical Association.

OVER ONE HUNDRED MEMBERS PRESENT.

Able Papers Read—Feasted—A Social Evening After Adjournment.

On last Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, the North Texas Medical Association met at Heard's opera house, called to order by J. C. Erwin, chairman of committee on arrangements. Prayer by Rev. G. A. Russell; welcome address on part of the city by Capt. T. F. Mangum; welcome address representing pnysicians of Collin county, W. R. Mathers, M. D., response by the president, Dr. J. S. Fite, Muscogee, I. T. A. J. Caldwell, Princeton.

SECTION WORK.

Section on the practice of medicine.

A very interesting paper on "Diagnosis and Treatment of Typhoid Fever," was read by Dr. M. C. McBride and discussed by Dr. Shelburne and others.

Dr. F. D. Thompson then read an elegant paper on La-Grippe, Drs. Gale, Van Zandt, Field, Wilson, Potts and Moore discussed the Theses of this paper at some length.

Dr. J. L. Van Zandt read a paper on Bowel troubles of children. The paper showed careful thought and critical observation on the part of the writer. A spirited discussion on the merits of which was entered into by Drs. Field, Spencer, Gumby, Mathers, Wilson, Fite, Burts, Mathews, McBride and Potts.

The evening session was devoted to business of the association.

Owing to excessive warm weather the 8 o'clock p. m. session opened to adjourn immediately.

SECOND DAY.

Prayer by Eld. D. W. Prichett, transaction of official business and completion of unfinished section work Section on Obstetrics and Gynæcology. A masterly paper on Uterine treatment during Gestation, was read by Dr. Gilcreest, of Gainesville. Drs. Howeth, Vanzandt, Burts, Mathers, Fite, and Ashton, discussed this paper in detail. Dr. Gibson, with his accustomed smile and pleasant address, came forward with a paper on, Antiseptics in Obstetrics and Gynæcology, which he read in that pleasant manner, which has so endeared him to the many homes in his wide practice. Here interest rose to enthusiasm, many of the most prominent Drs. present, both young and old entered into a spirited discussion, at the close of which Dr. Gibson very kindly thanked some of the younger members for their valuable suggestions on this subject. Well boys will be boys any way.

Dr. Field read a good paper on Cancer, showing very clearly that he had made that dread disease in all its forms a careful study. The knife, extensively used seemed to be the best mode of treatment suggested.

Dr. Wiley in his usual plain and practical manner made a verbal statement of an interesting case of Procidentia with systocele, which seemed to be a puzzler to many.

Dr. Ashton read a paper on Urethral fever.

Dr. Baird read a paper on New Antiseptics.

Dr Hooks read a paper on Obstruction of the bowels with report of cases.

Dr. Wilson read a paper on Suppurative inflamation occurring in undected fractures. All of these papers were ably discussed.

The visiting Drs. among them some of the most prominent in the state, in their able discussions, proved clearly to the patronage of the medical fraternity of this county that we have able and conscientious gentlemen to look after our theraputical interests.

We only wish that thousands of our citizens could have dropped in to hear these followers of Esculapus discuss their beliefs.

Last night at 8 o'clock the association was called to order and T. W. Wiley introduced the venerable president J. S. Saunders, who read the semi-annual address, which teemed with learning and sound advice.

Dr. Sims addressing Doctor Wilson as president delivered an eulogy on the aged president and made a motion to have the photo of the loved president taken for the members and to have one enlarged to place in the archives of the association. The motion prevailed unanimously, after which the association adjourned to meet in Paris on the 2nd Tuesday in December next.

Entertainment.

After the presidents annual address—the association was divided into three groups—headed by Drs. Wylie and Chew—Dr. Kirkpatrick and Dr. I.E. Webb.

Dr. Kirkpatrick, with his division proceeded to M. Aron's, where that courteous gentleman and his estimable lady assisted by a host of friends were in waiting to receive the Medical fraternity of North Texas.

The yard was illumined with transparencies, hung with buntings; and flowers abounded on all sides. Rich strains of music floated out upon the evening air as the city band in full force and uniform discoursed Arions march, while the Drs. filed through the spacious halls and elegant parlors to receive introductions to the ladies, thence to the yard again, where a table filled to overflowing offered refreshments to all. The only regret was that only thirty minutes were allowed to enjoy this grand treat.

The line of march was then taken up for Dr. J. C. Erwin's residence, where the chautauquans had in readiness another grand reception.

The lights shone brilliantly both in and out of doors.

The spacious and lovely parlors reverberated soft strains of delightful music.

Banks of flowers filled the atmosphere with rich fragrance and the table groaned with the luxuries of a continent. The line of march was next taken up for Mr. Heard's, where Mr. Heard and lady with their many friends, awaited our coming, The surroundings here beggars description, The smiles of welcome beamed from every nook and corner.

Summing all up. It was the biggest, grandest affair we ever saw. Everybody was highly pleased, the visitors were delighted, and expressed a desire to live among us.

We regret that we cannot give names; for every one in any way connected with the entertainment deserves special mention, but want of space forbids.

Association Notes.

President J. S. Saunders may be an old "fogy," but the fraternity delight to do him honor.

Dr. A. Sims, is a genial, eloquent gentleman and his remarks were received heartily.

We are under many obligations to the secretary for courtesies extended to The DEMOCRAT.

Dr. Gibson is a rustler when it comes to entertaining the boys.

During the excitement Drs. Wiley, Parker and Chew kindly remembered the McKinney Press.

As a toaster Dr. Rosser takes the take.

Capt. Blizzard said "I am too full for utterance."

Capt. Mangum:—"I hope the Medical fraternity will out live their patients."

John Church eloquently spoke in behalf of the ladies.

J. S. Heard and lady are able to make one forget all the cares of life.

Dr. J. C. Erwin knew what the boys needed.

M. Aron and lady overwhelmed "us" doctors with hospitality.

The "chautauqua punch" was delicious.

The band boys filled the air with sweet music.

Dr. O. H. Kirkpatrick in his happy style made the Doctors feel welcome.

For genuine good nature none excel our own Dr. E. N. McAulay.

Dr. R. Gale the veteran physician of Collin aided us by his generosity.

Drs. Caldwell and Webb were noticable for their attention to the visiting members.

"McKinney is a solid, beautiful city, containing a generous hearted people," was the expression often heard as coming from the visitors.

WHITE'S GROVE, JUNE 9, '91.

Editor Democrat.

The committee of White's Grove that was appointed to solicit aid for the camp-meeting was as follows:

James Coleman, J. G. Williams, Mrs. L. C. Parker, Miss Mollie McKnight.

F. L. ROBERTS,
Chairman of com.

Other papers please copy.

Barney Gibbs, State club organizer for the democratic party, is out with a subtreasury bill. So now the democrats have a subtreasury bill and the Alliance reformers have a subtreasury bill. The Ocala subtreasury is much the best. But the funny part of the matter is that the politicians here say that Barney has flopped over to the Alliance, and they say they are not going to follow him. A few weeks ago it was said by the partisan papers that the subtreasury had split the Alliance, and now they say with much more truth, that the subtreasury had split the Bourbon democrats, for Gibbs and his crowd say we must have subtreasury, and the "old war hoss" and party "boss" says, "No, sir; Gibbs and his crowd are as big fools as you Alliance people."—Alliance Vindicator.

National Commercial College of Denison, Texas.

A MODEL BUILDING.

Home Institution for Practical Education.

The National Commercial College of Denison, incorporated under the laws of the State, will open its first session September 1, 1891. In view of the fact that as a business college it has no superior in the United States and no equal west of the Mississippi river, The DEMOCRAT will this week devote considerable space, to an outline of the course of study and method of instruction.

The company was organized in the fall of 1889, but active work on the building did not begin until last summer. A cut of the building taken from a photograph is herewith given.

It is located on Main street at the crossing of Fannin avenue, which is near the geographical center of the city as well as center of population. The building is four stories high in addition to an airy basement which is to be used as a storage room for fuel and for apparatus and machinery for heating the building.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

In stating that the National Business College of Denison has one of the strongest faculties to be found in America is saying a good deal. To eastern and northern people who, for many years, have regarded Texas as a state of primitive schools, a great and successful business school will be looked upon with some degree of credulity but the personel of the faculty is sufficient guarantee that young ladies and young gentlemen may, in Denison, receive just as thorough and complete training for an active business life as in Poughkeepsie, Quincy, Louisville or Boston. Following is a list of officers and heads of departments. All the teachers have not, as yet, been selected, but will be in a short time and their names will appear in the school catalogue which is to be ready for distribution July 1.

President of Trustees, Hon. T. V. Munson, M. S., vice-president American Horticultural society, graduate of Kentucky University also Bryant & Stratton's Chicago Commercial College, six years Professor of Science in Kentucky University.

General Superintendent and Business Manager, T. W. Roach, M. S. and M. A., graduate of Mt. Union, Ohio; 25 years experience as teacher, superintendent and organizer of schools and colleges.

Superintendent Business department, W. B. Hamill, A. M., six years at the head of Eastman's College Banks, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. (resigned to accept position in N. C. C., Denison.)

Principal Penmanship Department, D. A. Griffin, M. A., graduate Bryant & Stratton's, 15 years at the head of leading business colleges in Texas, and the champion penman of the State, (resigned to accept that position.)

Principal Theory Department W. J. Hollinsworth, M. A., graduate of Eastman's College and 6 years a teacher in business colleges, (resigned to accept place.)

Superintendent Normal Department, Wm. Gay, Ph. D., 25 years one of the leading normal school educators of Illinois, (resigned to accept place.)

principal Normal Department, J. J. Crumley, A. B., graduate of National Normal University; also of Maysville College; 6 years a teacher.

Teacher of Spanish, German and French, J. Hillner, A. M., 17 years. Inspector of U. S. Navy; 30 years teacher of languages in the leading colleges of the land.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study, as prescribed by the faculty and board of trustees, will be found to conform to the necessities of the age. It is useful, thoroughly practical and will fit its students for immediate service in their respective lines of vocation. The business course includes all kinds of double and single entry bookkeeping, the manner of changing from one to the other, also consignments, shipments, partnership, commercial law, commercial arithmetic, commercial paper of all kinds, business correspondence, domestic and foreign exchange, banking, insurance, discount, brokerage, merchandising and railroading. It is equipped with two college banks, wholesale, retail and commission houses, real estate, insurance, and postoffices in exact imitation of the best of their kind in the real business world, and the student will receive thorough training in all the branches of modern commerce.

The penmanship department will be presided over by Prof. Griffin of the Dallas Business College, who is one of the leading penmen of America. It will embrace critical instruction and practice in business penmanship and pendrawing.

The shorthand and type writing department will be in charge of two teachers, representing two of the leading systems of shorthand now in use—teachers who have had experience in taking court proceedings, speeches, press reports, and in teaching this art. The one teaching the Amanuenses system, which can be learned in a short time, the other the Reporting system. The court room, the church and lecture hall, will be their field of operation, thus enabling the students, to reach the highest attainable proficiency.

In the telegraph department will be a full line of Western Union tables, batteries, books and everything that pertains to an office of this kind. Wires will connect with hotels, the business department and other parts of the city, where students will practice under the instructions of a practical Western Union teacher.

One of the main features of the National Business College of Denison will be that of the normal, or training department. This course will not only include all the branches usually taught for the first two years in any first class college, but for those who desire to teach, there will be the Training department, where instructions will be given in Didactics. Psychology and Pedagogy will receive careful attention. The nature of the profession, the teacher's preparation, development of the school, organizing, classifying and school laws and records, will be carefully taught. The pupils will be required to teach in some of the preparatory departments, under the supervision of the Principal and criticism of other students.

The magnificent building is practically complete and ready to receive the six cars of furniture and fixtures which are standing on the tracks at the depot in that city. The hot water heater, with a radiating surface of 7500 feet, is being placed in position and everything is getting in shape for the opening of the college which, as stated above, will be on September 1.

The first new oats arrived in our city last Tuesday and a DEMOCRAT reporter interviewed the owner with the following result: "What are oats worth" asked the reporter in a dignified manner. "They are not worth a d—n" said the sturdy honest farmer, who evidently was not satisfied with 27 1-2 cents per bushel, after having to pay 50 to 70 cents only a few weeks ago.

Encampment Supplies.

NEVADA, TEX., JUNE 16, '91.

To the Alliance fraternity of Collin county. Brothers the time is now drawing nigh for our great coming encampment. You should be mindful of the fact and send the money that your people donate just as soon as convenient to Bro. O. D. Winn, McKinney, Texas, as the committee will have to make some payments to get the encampment on a solid footing. Send the number of beef, sheep and the amount of bread to Bro. F. C. Thompson, McKinney Texas so as to get at something like the amount raised for the encampment. Brethren let me urge upon you to be prompt in this matter as the time is coming.

Fraternally,

Euppsy.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and oust the demon dyspepsia and install instead Eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of liver, stomach and kidneys Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle, by E. N. McAuley & Bro., druggists.

Keep your eye on the camp-meeting date.

Jonah Varner, who has been in Southern Texas, for some time guarding convicts is now in McKinney on a furlough. He expects to visit his old home in North Carolina.

Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia, and too hearty eating, is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.

Orange and pine apple glace, at Rutledge's.

We hear of many misdemeanors being perpetrated in several communities over the county. Several school houses have been shot into and window lights broken out. Why young bloods should engage in such mean work one cannot answer. It certainly cannot be to satisfy personal spite for instead of doing injury to one man the whole community is damaged. We earnestly hope the law will be able to reach these lawless fellows and teach them a lesson they will not soon forget.

Cold, refreshing drinks of all kinds at Rutledge's.

If you once try Carter's Little Liver Pills for sick headache, billiousness or constipation, you will never be without them. They are purely vegetable; smal and easy to take. Don't forget this.

The Greatest Strike.

Among the great strikes that of Dr. Miles in discovering his New Heart Cure has proved itself to be one of the most important. The demand for it as become astonishing. Already the treatment of heart disease is being revolutioniled, and many unexpected cures effected. It soon relieves short breath, fluttering, pains in side, arm, shoulder, weak and hungry spells, oppression, swelling of ankles, smothering and heart dropsy. Dr. Miles' book on Heart and Nervous Diseases, free. The unequaled New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by Smith Bros. sole agent, also his Restorative Nervine for headache, fits, sprees, hot flashes, nervous, chills opium habit, etc.

Notice.

E. F. England will deliver an Alliance lecture at Millwood, June 25, at night. Spring Hill, June 26, at night. Lectures public. Ladies invited.

Will Be Given Away.

Our enterpriseing druggists Smith Beos., who carry the finest stock of drugs, perfumeries, toilet articles, brushes, sponges, etc., are giving away a large number of trial bottles of Dr. Miles' celebrated Restorative Nervine. They guarantee it to cure headache, dizziness, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, the ill effects of spirits, tobacco, coffee, etc. Druggists say it is the greatest seller they ever knew and is universally satisfactory. They also guarantee Dr. Miles New Heart Cure in all cases of nervous or organic heart disease, palpitation, pain in side, smothering, etc. Fine books on "Nervous and Heart Diseases" free.

COPEVILLE, JUNE 15, '91.
Editor Democrat.

Since I last wrote you our people have been made sad over the death of Mrs. William Jarrell. Mr. Jarrell moved to this community some three years ago, almost penniless by hard work and honesty has not only gained for himself a bountiful living, but a reputation as all good citizens deserves. Therfore our people are all in sympathy with him in his sad bereavement and offer their condolence.

We are having plenty of rain and crop prospects are fine, though the webb worm is reported in some of the cotton crops, but the general idea is that their race is about run with no great amount of damage. With a few more good seasons East Collin will again be the Egypt for the less fortunate parts of the county. Wheat and oats are being harvested with an abundant yield.

Married at the home of Wm. Renfro. Mrs. Emma Neal to Wm. Graves. Parson Chapman, of Farmersville, officiating. Many congratulations were tendered the happy couple and all hope that their voyage through life may be pleasant and their pathway may be strewn with flowers of happiness instead of thorns and thistles of sorrow.

Dr. Gordon, of Lavon, is shaking hands with his many friends in Copeville today.

W. A. Steadham, of Farmersville, is spending the summer in Copeville, selling musical instruments, organs and pianos.

Mr. Steadham is a musician and being a bachelor of course he offers his services to all the ladies who desires to engage in the musical business.

We notice a communication in The DEMOCRAT of last week under the heading of "some what sarcastic," signed 'Ratler,' from Vineland, congratulating in a sarcastic way the position taken by myself and Uncle Mike and Capt. John Johnson. As regard to myself I desire to say for the information of the gentleman from Vineland, that I have not returned to the democratic fold, as he declares, but have always been a member of that good old party, that is founded on principles of exact justice to all and special privileges to none. I know that the Davis family have been divided on the local issues of our county, Ikie in many instances of a family difficulty, but when it comes to national issues I am glad to say, that the entire Davis family stand as a unit for the grand old principles, as set forth by Jefferson and Jackson and in spite of all such Ratler brained articles as that of Ratler, we shall stand united, and to the laboring people of our country we would say, stand firm on the principles of democracy and ignore every effort by a designing few such as Ratler, to infatuate our minds into the importance of a third party. Believing that the only reward would be the continuance of republican administration.

Mrs. Davis has been quite sick for the past six or eight days, but we are happy to say, at this writing she is convalescent.

As ever yours for honest politics. PETER I. DAVIS.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity surely on their merits. E. N. McAulay & Bro., druggists.

On last Saturday evening Mr. G. L. Clark, state lecturer for the Alliance, addressed a good sized audience in the justice court room at this place. Mr. Clark is a farmer of Johnson country, and is a speaker of some ability. He attributed the hard times in the country as largely due to the scarcity of money, and advocated the subtreasury as a remedy.—Farmersville Times.

A Lover's Lament.

Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading, hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray,
What power Death's cruel hand can stay?
Sweetheart, Sweetheart!

Why, nothing but Dr. Pierces' Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, is unequalled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

Lightning, Wind and Rain—Considerable Damage Sustained—No One Hurt.

Bonham, Fannin County, Texas, June 12.—A severe electrical storm, accompanied with torrents of rain and hard and high wind, visited this city last night about 10 o'clock. The residence of W. J. Lowe was struck by lightning and badly damaged. The occupants escaped uninjured with the exception of a severe shock. Also the residence of W. W. Hornbeck was struck by lightning. It struck the brick flue, litterly demolishing it, scattering the brick all over the beds of the occupants: After tearing up the ceiling the current passed on to the floor, tearing a great hole in it, then via a boisd'arc post, which was reduced to kindling wood, thence into the ground.

Further reports from last night's storm say that a destructive hail storm passed over the country west of here traveling in a southeastern direction, totally destroying the crops in its path.

FROM LUCAS.

Protracted Meeting.

LUCAS, JUNE 13, '91.

Editor Democrat.

We have had a fine rain, which will insure us a good corn crop.

Farmers have their crops in fine condition.

Oats are some better than was expected they would be.

Rev. Levi Dunn preached a "stunner" at the Baptist church last Sunday evening and also at night. Your correspondent attended the ministers and deacons meeting which convened at Allen on Friday and Saturday before the fifth Sunday in May, and was well pleased with the exercises, especially that part that was engaged in about 12 o'clock. Those Allen people know just how to entertain a hungry Baptist. We left very much regretting that there is not five Sundays in every month.

Mrs. N. G. Mathews, of Bowie is visiting relatives around here.

J. B. Snider, our worty assistant post master and clerk at Lucas makes a flying visit to Wylie very often. Wonder what is so attractive.

A protracted meeting will commence at the Baptist church at this place on the first Sunday in July. UNCLE MIKE.

Runaway Accident—Teachers Elected.

Farmersville, Collin county, Texas, June 13.—In a runaway yesterday evening Gus Hooks sustained a complete fracture of one leg above the knee.

The city council yesterday elected the following teachers for the coming school term:

Prof. W. W. Shepherd, principal; Prof. Z. A. C. Harris and Miss Sallie Hardin, assistants. Three others are to be selected.

Keep your eye on the camp-meeting date.

THE ALLIANCE IN IT.

Cleveland is Not.

LUCAS, JUNE 15, '91.

To Peter I. Davis:

Dear Peter, I am truly glad to see that we are so near together. We both favor a free hand in local politics, but if the bosses will have nominations any how you will go in with me and see that the thing is done right. As to apologies for past conduct you need not give yourself any uneasiness.

You say if my proposition in local affairs is right why not propose the same in a national issue? I have no objections to that, in fact I am more than willing to try it. I would just like to see every Alliance democrat in the United States march right into the ranks of the democrat party and go his full length to defeat Cleveland in the convention in '92. You are for Cleveland and I am against him, so that is about all the difference there is between us. I am just as much opposed to high tariff as you are, but I am tired of so much campaign thunder, where there is no reality. If you remember the famous Mills tariff reform measure, which we fool democrats yelled so loud over only prosposed to reduce the tariff on an average of about five per cent.

If it would take our present tariff system under republican rule one hundred years to ruin the country, how long would it take the democrats under the Mills bill to bring bankruptcy? I believe that, if we had fifty dollars per capita circulation we would be more prosperous than if we had the tariff reduced 5 per cent.

As to a third party, I think it was born before its time. The only way we can check it in its wild career and win it to democracy is for us to turn Cleveland off and put a man in the lead, who is in full sympathy with reform measures. Yes sir I want tariff reform, but there are more tariff reformers besides Cleveland.

Your idea about educational clubs is a good one. I learned that the McKinney club is taking up the living issues and discussing them. This is right and I hope the good work will go on.

I am sorry you are not a member of the Alliance, but as to the Alliance being political she has never been anything else. One of its cardinal principles is to educate its members in political economy.

Yours for the right,

UNCLE MIKE.

Ridicule as an Argument.

We observe that there is a disposition in some quarters to ridicule and deride the Alliance and industrial people in connection with the reform movement they have inaugurated. But we apprehend this mode of argument will not amount to much; indeed, it will probably come quite as far from hitting the mark as the same kind of treatment did with respect to the greenbackers, fifty years ago, when the legality of the greenback as money was made the leading political issue by this new party. But the course of events and the decision of the United States supreme court proved that they were right then, and we venture to affirm that time will show that the Alliance and Industrialists are just as right now. This is our judgment. Make a note of it, if you please. —National View.

In our issue of May 4th we had the following taken from one of our exchanges, and through an over-sight failed to credit it:

"A war is going on in the ranks of the Farmers' Alliance of Texas. This is greatly to be regretted, as it can hardly do the order any good, but probably much harm."

Since the publication of the above we learn from good authority that there is no war going on in the ranks of the Alliance of Texas, but that they are working in harmony and we make this correction as a matter of justice to all.—Farmersville Times.

Remember you can get The DEMOCRAT for $1.50 per year. If you have not the money now send us your name and pay us next fall.

Angels, My Darling, Will Rock Thee to Sleep.

ANSWER TO "ROCK ME TO SLEEP MOTHER."

My child, ah, my child, thou art weary tonight,
Thy spirit is sad and dim is the light;
Thou wouldst call me back from the echoless shore
To the trials of life—thy heart is of yore;
Thou longest again for my fond, loving care,
For my kiss on thy cheek, for my hands on thy hair;
But angels around thee their loving watch keep
And angels, my darling, will rock thee to sleep.

"Backward?" say onward! ye swift rolling years;
Gird on thy armor, keep back thy tears;
Count not thy trials and efforts in vain,
They'll bring the thee light of thy childhood again,
You should not weary, my child, by the way,
But watch for the light of that brighter day,
Not tired of "sowing for others to reap,"
For angels, my darling will rock thee to sleep.

Tired, my child, of the "base, the untrue,"
Oh, I have tasted the cup they give you!
I've felt the deep sorrow in the living green
Of a low, mossy grave by a silvery stream,
But the dear mother I sought for in vain
Is an angel presence and with me again,
And in the still night, in the silence so deep
Will come the bright angels to rock thee to sleep.

Nearer thee now in days that are flown,
Purer the lovelight encircling thy home,
Far more enduring the watch for to-night
Than even earth-worship away from the light;
Soon the dark shadows will linger no more,
Nor come at thy call from the opening door.
But know thou, my child, that the angels watch keep;
And soon, very soon, they will rock thee to sleep.

The Christian Courier of Dallas, speaking of the revival meeting at McKinney, conducted by Elder J. J. Kockhart, of this city, says:

Elsewhere we mention the fact of J. J. Lockhart being at McKinney. Since writing the paragraph we have heard that immense crowds are flocking to hear him, that on last Lord's day evening the services were moved to the opera house and that it was packed to its uttermost, We rejoice in the deep interest in things of the Lord's that is being aroused in our neighbor city.—Greenville Herald.

Jim Albright Drowned.

The sad news reached the city last Wednesday that Jim Albright, of this city, who was at Frazier, Texas, on a visit to relatives, was drowned last Friday or Satuaday evening. Nothing definite could be obtained, but a dispatch to the Dallas News of the 10th, inst., which stated that a heavy rain had flooded Turkey creek, near that place, where he was engaged at work, and overflowed the bottom so fast he could not get out, but was drowned before assistance could be obtained. Also a Mr. Pondexter, formerly of this county, and a little girl 3 years of age were drowned. All the parties are well known in Wylie, and Mr. Albright's mother resides in this city. His mother, when hearing of the sad news of her son, which was told her by Tom P. Williams, on last Wednesday evening, wept bitterly, and she told Mr. Williams she had felt for 3 or 4 days past that something very sad would soon befall her. Nothing more definite could be obtained, as we were going to press when the news reached us. The bereaved have our heart-felt sympathy.—Wylie Rustler.

Their Game.

Some Texas politicians and grape headed politicians are asserting that the Farmers Alliance has deserted its tariff demands and is pushing the subtreasury scheme only. The Alliance members are not responsible for such want of understanding. Stupidity is a natural defect in some people. The Alliance stands squarely upon every demand. It means reforms all along the line. It knows the benefits of tariff reform and is going to fight for it when it finds any body to fight. The Alliance has not undertaken to furnish brains to those whom nature has failed to supply. The tools of the plutocrats in Texas and elsewhere have undertaken to down the subtreasury demand of the Alliance, and are resorting to every kind of quibble and subterfuge. To say that lying is being indulged in would not be putting it too strong.—Southern Mercury.

Lincoln a Calamityite—Prophecy of His Coming True.

Scarcely an issue of the opposition press but what is filled with abuse of members of the Alliance whom they are pleased to call calamity howlers. If it is wrong to point out the dangers to thich our present governmental policy is carrying us, if it is wrong to proclaim ourselves opposed to the trust system and to show why it oppresses labor and is detrimental to the consumer, if it is wrong to portray the ruin, the greed of the eastern money lender is producing, and if it is wrong to declare ourselves in favor of a different money system, then it is wrong to denounce crime and sin. It is a mark of respect to be called a calamity howler, for we can boast of having one of the greatest of men for our predecessor. Hear him:

"I see in the near future a crisis arising which unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country. As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power of the country will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all the wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic is destroyed. I feel at this time more anxiety for the safety of my countrymen than ever before, even in the midst of the war. God grant that my fears may prove groundless."

Now can our opponents see who started the calamity howl, and is there one of them that so unpatriotic as to call the great and good Abraham Lincoln a calamyte? He saw with prophetic vision the dangerous reefs upon which the republic was drifting and gave us words of warning and admonition, we heeded them not until the dangerous reefs were in view. Now we are taking up the cry of our prophetic leader and proclaiming it throughout the land, believing as Lincoln did, that it is our duty to warn our fellowmen, so that the final catastrophe of which Lincoln spoke, the downfall of the republic, may be averted. Would to heaven shat we were wrong, better it would be that we were, than that it were a fact, but it is all too true. The very conditions that Lincoln warned us of are rapidly coming true, There is a grave impending danger ahead. Congress no longer provides for the common, but corporate welfare, and class legislation has made millionaires by and tramps by the million. Already 3,000,000,000 tramps are in the land and 5,000,000 who are at starvation's door, according to the late census, one-half the wealth is owned by 31,000 persons.

WHEN THE HAIR

Shows signs of falling, begin at once the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation strengthens the scalp, promotes the growth of new hair, restores the natural color to gray and faded hair, and renders it soft, pliant, and glossy.

"We have no hesitation in pronouncing Ayer's Hair Vigor unequaled for dressing the hair, and we do this after long experience in its use. This preparation preserves the hair, cures dandruff and all diseases of the scalp, makes rough and brittle hair soft and pliant, and prevents baldness. While it is not a dye, those who have used the Vigor say it will stimulate the roots and color-glands of faded, gray, light, and red hair, changing the color to or even black. It will not soil the pillow-case nor a pocket-handkerchief, and is always agreeable. All the dirty, gummy hair preparations should be displaced at once by Ayer's Hair Vigor, and thousands who go around with heads looking like 'the fretful porcupine' should hurry to the nearest drug store and purchase a bottle of the Vigor."—The Sunny South, Atlanta, Ga.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is excellent for the hair. It stimulates the growth, cures baldness, restores the natural color, cleanses the scalp, prevents dandruff, and is a good dressing. We know that Ayer's Hair Vigor differs from most hair tonics and similar preparations, it being perfectly harmless."—From Economical Housekeeping, by Eliza R. Parker.

At the Churches.

MISSIONARY MASS MEETING.

McKinney Stirred From Center to Circumference by Eloquent Preachers.

AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

On Friday night last Rev. B. H. Carroll of Waco occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church. His subject was of two parts. 1st. "Christ is indeed risen." 2d. "Simon went a-fishing." The speaker read several passages from the New Testament bearing on the above subject, then he proceeded to deliver a characteristic and able sermon. He spoke of the Lord's protecting care of those who labored in the Master's cause, and notwithstanding this they would forsake duty and return to their former avocation. To those who had retired from "being fishers of men" he wa ted to put a question which he hoped would burn into their very souls, "Is Christ dead?" His entire address elicited wrapped attention—at times during pauses the silence was almost marvel ous. The noted divine di credit to the wide reputation he bears as a scholar and orator.

McKinney, Tex, Dec. 14.—The work of the Baptist missionary mass meeting has been full of interest. Saturday morning work was opened by Rev. A. M. Sims; subject, "Towns and cities as centers of influence for spreading the gospel." His illustrations were apt and forcible.

Dr. J. B. Cranfill followed on state missions, and the way he spoke of the "largest city in the state" it way lucky he did not have a Dallas audience, though for the matter of that, the reverend brother is sorter careless how he hits with the king's English. He was especially emphatic in the importance to be attached to Vernon, Quanah and the Panhandle generally. There ought to be a missionary in every county in the west, and he informed his audience, with God's help and a little of their means, he intended to have one in every county in the west.

In the afternoon Rev. Sam Anderson "began at Jerusalem, and he "got there, Eli."

Rev. T. H. Coleman followed in a beautiful allegory, working all our missions from the local church as a starting point. The local church, like Jerusalem, was to be the scene of the first victories.

Rev. T. M McConnell talked on "A System of Finances in Every Church."

Rev. R. C. Buckner had a huge subject, "Larger Contributions." He emphasized the Jewish way of giving tithes and made the point that no Christian ought to do less.

Rev. J. T. Harris spoke of the home board at Atlanta, spoke of the liberality to Texas, and in fact showed up well.

At this point Rev. B. H. Carroll made a magnificent talk on general principles. The meeting was getting on gloriously, everything was moving and the reverend doctor just let himself out in a talk full of encouragement to his brethren "Love one another, stand together in denominational work," was the central idea of the eloquent divine.

Sunday morning there was neither standing room, sitting room nor other kind of room in the spacious church. Dr B H. Carroll, the great prohibition orator, was to preach on "The Relationship of Election and Predestination to Mis sions." The preface was to the effect that the doctor felt in regard to human criticism pret ty much like Daniel did among the animals in the lions' den. He then read from the 9th chapter of Romans about the potter's power over clay, to make one vessel to honor, and announced his text: "Account that the long suffering of God is intended for our salvation." The doctrine of election might be presented in a way that would be abhorrent He read the 9th article of the Baptist faith as set out in Pendleton's manual, and just here dropped a word advising some good brother to present their minister with Cathcart's Concordance It was a good recommendation.

Continuing, he said to elect means to choose. Patrick Henry said: "We have no election," that is no choice. God chooses us, not we him. Not a passage in the Bible hints that this choice is made when the sinner believes, but all the Bible teaches this is done before the foundation

Does God foresee that certain people are going to repent and believe, and, therefore, he chooses them? Nothing in the Bible teaches that. "As many as were ordained to eternal life believed." He said he once wished this were reversed. but belief came ofterward. Faith is the result of election. What then is the relation of election to mission work? Why pray or preach? or why send missionaries? Why usurp the prerogative of God? The atmosphere in which we should study this doctrine should be in consonance with divine utterances. I have no pleaeure in the death of the wicked. The tears which the savior shed over Jerusalem were not hypocritical. Nor was Pual insincere when he said: I exhort that supplication be made for all men. God says to his preachers to go to all men, and let no man accuse his God of insincerity. It is impossible to portray the language and manner of the preacher's invocation to the spirit and the Godhead. There was no contradiction between the writings of Paul and of Peter, and Peter says, The long-suffering of God with the wicked, means the salvation of the wicked

The preacher here read from Jeremiah of the lesson given to the prophet by the potter.

The preacher then read from the 10th Romans: "How shall they believe except they hear?" and said the relationship between election and missions is this:

Souls are elected to salvation in Christ. They are to get to God through Christ and to get to Christ by hearing the preaching and the preaching comes by missions. And what a grand doctrine it was! What a beautiful thought that of election. He wouldn't preach about a God that didn't fore ordain all things. He would not preach about a God that didn't purpose all things; that didn't know the march of events and before whom history was as naught! He loved the doctrine of election. He didn't get into a valley of 'ry bones, nor did he think of the unborn million babes, but in its sweetness arching the span of the uni verse, one end resting on the rainbow of promise and arch ing in eternity. For him it meant a denial of ungodliness and to live soberly, and let every Christian hear the cry, "Help us," coming up from missions, whether borne in whispers or thundered on the storm.

Sunday afternoon Miss Everett, a Missionary from Brazil, spoke to a large audience on "Women in missions." She was preceded by Rev. T. J. Harris on the same subject. Both addresses helped to increase the interest in mis sions.

Sunday night Rev. J. M. Carroll occupied the pulpit in behalf of foreign missions. It was an earnest, eloquent and argumentative appeal for the benighted lands of earth.

AT METHODIST CHURCH.

We had the pleasure of hearing an able sermon preached by Rev. R. T. Hanks of Dallas at the Methodist chnrch last Sunday night. The speaker took for his text "Looking unto Jesus." He vividly described the Christian life as a great race-course. To illustrate, he recalled the scenes of childhood, when the boys would gather on a fine spring morning, pull off their shoes, drop down their "gallusses" and start at the word "go," full of ambition to win the race; how some boy anxious to know something about his opponent would turn his eyes on the other racers instead of keeping them on the prize at the end of the course, and consequently would lose the race. He thought the successful Christian would keep his eyes on the blessed Jesus and the crown that awaited him instead of turning them to the right or left to notice the progress of a fast traveling brother or sister. The sermon was full of practical and brilliant suggestions which elicited close attention from the large audience whose expectation was more than gratified. We did not get to near Rev. J. B. Cranfill who occupied the Methodist pulpit at 11 a. m. on Sunday. We learn that he preached a soul stirring sermon, which elicited tears from many who were present.

A merchant of this city, in speaking about the inconsistency of certain city regulations, said: "A few years ago individuals started a planing mill on East Virginia street, but were compelled to move it because of it being declared a nuisance. The machinery was moved beyond the railroad, near to the residence of the late Judge Andrews. Now the old Nenney building, better known as the 'hotel down the street,' is being used as a dance hall by the colored population. It cannot be successfully denied that the noise kept up to late hours of nights, consisting of swearing and yelling, is more offensive to the good people who live in that vicinity than the noise of a planing mill during the day time." The above remarks deserve more than a passing notice. No one objects to colored people innocently enjoying themselves, but such scenes that are witnessed, especially during election times, is a disgrace to civilization, and it is only justice to note that the better class of the colored population condemn it.

Quite a sensation was created among Georgia politicians last Saturday by the announcement that Senator J. B. Gordon had accepted a proposition to join the alliance, and Tuesday the 9th instant set for his initiation.

Religion and money are very closely connected. It takes money to propagate the gospel of Christianity. So the presence of money not only makes the poor poorer and sows distress and corruption and sin broadcast, but it comes directly in the way of the injunction that "the gospel shall be preached unto all the world." If the churches would do God's service, they should fall into line, and demand more money and less sinners.—Torch of Liberty.

How many of our farmers have traveled in Europe for pleasure and recreation? How many wives and daughters of our farmers have returned from the summer vacation at the seashore? How many farmers with their wives expect to visit St. Louis Exposition? Why is it that a farmer's daughter cannot parade as fine a dress as her city cousin? Is it because the farmer's don't work and the poor lawyers and speculators are compelled to produce the wealth of the country, or is it because the farmers produce the wealth while they make and execute the law? Gordon to Join the Alliance.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 6.—Senator John B. Gordon is an alliance man. He has at least accepted an invitation to join the order, and the ceremonies attending upon his initiation will take place Tuesday afternoon. Senator Gordon was to have been initiated last Friday by the sub alliance at Decatur, but for some reason it was postponed. The rumor to-day that circulated through the lobbies was that the initiation will occur in room 2, which is the room of the agricultural committee of the house, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and in consequence quite a little sensation was created among the legislators and everybody wanted to get at the bottom of it. Those who know know all about it say that the time is fixed for Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and that the initiation will most likely occur in the body room of the Decatur Alliance. Some of the farmers in the house of representatives, however, say that arrangements have been made to have the Decatur alliance come to Atlanta in a body and conduct the ceremonies in room 21 of the capitol so as to allow all of the alliance legislators a chance to witness the notable event.

The National Alliance which convened at Ocala, Fla., last week has adjourned. Considerable excitement was created by the investigation of the charge against McCune, Livingstone and Polk relative to the Georgia senatorial election. The investigation resulted in exhonoration of the three alliance leaders above named. The convention was largely attended and the enthusiasm prevailing goes to prove that the order is growing rapidly.

HIGGINS SCHOOL HOUSE,
December 7, 1890

"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me write, 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."—REV. 14:13

It is with mingled feelings of joy and sorrow that we write to announce the departure of our dear sister, Sarah L Graves, nee Skaggs, who was born April 19, 1862, in Knox county, Tenn.; was married to W. H. Graves, July 3, 1881; died near Higgins school house, November 23, 1890.

She has been in this neighborhood one short year, and by her many acts of kindness has rendered herself dear to all Being a faithful Christian, she set for us a good example She was a member of the Baptist church since November 20, '81; also a member of the Alliance, and was buried with Alliance honors.

We, the Bishop Alliance, tender our heartfelt sympathies, and will remember the bereaved husband in his trouble. Although afflictions are deep, his loss is her eternal gain—a sleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, from which none ever wake to weep

A GREETING.

The DEMOCRAT takes pleasure in extending to its many readers and advertising patrons a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. As the old year dropps into the yawning abyss of the past, and our memories recall scenes enacted upon its bosom, a mingling of regret and joy naturally pervades our thoughts Yet while standing upon the threshold of the New Year we cheerfully dismiss any thought of malice, wishing for each and every individual of all creeds and beliefs a prosperous and happy future, trusting that upon some flowery shore a common destiny awaits us all.

A Tragic Death.

Last Sunday night at 9 o'clock the north bound H. & T. C. freight train ran over Ed. Winn, just this side of the East Fork bridge, north of this city. The legs and almost the entire body of the unfortunate man was mashed to pieces and scattered several yards along the track.

The poor fellow had been drinking and of course lay down upon the track perfectly unconscious of the relentless iron wheels that was soon to dash him into eternity.

He was about thirty-five years old and a railroad laborer on the section, north of McKinney. He leaves five orphan children suqject to the cold charity of the world, his wife having died about one year ago. The writer can in sincerity advise his readers in the language of Soloman, "Touch not, taste not, handle not"

To the Taxpayers of Collin County.

MCKINNEY, Oct. 12, 1890.

Editor Democrat:

The following is the report published recently, assuming to show the condition of our finances:

"THE COUNTY FINANCES.

"McKinney, Tex, Nov. 26.—L. M. Talkington, treasurer, turned over to Capt. W. H Taylor, treasurer elect, the following funds to-day: Jury fund, $3765.44; county fund, $3466 25; road and bridge fund, $232 87; courthouse fund, $2395.18; available school funds, cash and bonds, $20,918 70; lease on 1356 acres school land in Cottle county, $254.25; mortgages on real estate court house fund, 8 per cent. interest, $7125; mortgages on real estate, $5000. Total, $47,577,-29. Two years ago there was $1000 in the jury fund, $100 in the county fund and the school fund was on hand mostly. The county funds are, it thus appears, in excess and the county finances are in a more prosperous condition."

Now in order to see whether said report was a correct and full statement or not, I got a statement from the commissioners court record. The following is the report of L M. Talkington made at the end of his official term on Thursday, Nov. 13, 1890, of the road and bridge fund:

Amount on hand at last report	$655.41
Collected since last report	155.00
Total	$810.41
Amount paid out since last report	$962 60
	810 41
Over paid	152.19
Registered against road and bridge fund	7742 28

Why was not this $7742 28 registered against the road and bridge fund published for the people to read that they might understand the true condition. Only a part was published to make it appear that the road and bridge fund was ahead, and the remark attached "The county funds are, it thus appears, in excess and county finances are in a more prosperous condition," when the truth was there was $7742.28 short. The taxpayers, since the war, have been swindled out of something near $400,000 by bad official management and false reports. Finch said that Oglesby robbed us of $50,000. Whose fault was that? Was it not our officials' duty to let us know when the first dollar was missed? Was not Oglesby's securities good ones? During the late canvass every voter believed that the road and bridge fund was in a healthy condition from the reports sent out in the papers and spoken on the stump.

If such men as Rollins and Mack Smith had been elected the cost of road and bridges would have been reduced at least one half from the present cost.

Every sensible man knows that one burr or pin oak floor made of plank two inches thick in a bridge will last as long as five of the present pine floors. The latter is knotty and sappy and about one and a half inches thick and liable to break a plank the first time a load passes over it.

Another thought in favor of the oak: It can be had for from $2.25 to $2.50, all the county can use. The pine costs $2 00. Again, it would employ our own labor instead of the labor of the pinery, and it would leave the money in our own county instead of sending it to the pinery.

Now if our political opponents are not suited we hope they will answer like men and not cry out that it is not democratic to tell the truth. If the precedent they have set is carried out, no future bond can be collected. JOHN JOHNSON.

Oh, what a Cough!

Will you heed the warning? The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50 cents to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup and whooping cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For lame back, side or chest use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by Bristol Bros.

Christmas Entertainment.

There will be an entertainment at the Christian church on the night of Dec. 24. This entertainment will consist of songs, recitations and a regular Christmas ship, full rigged, heavily ladened, and under the command of Capt. Santa Claus. All who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity of dispensing blessings and good cheer are invited to liberty to do so. For of this ship it can be said—

She is free to one and all,
Schools and families large and small.
All who wish to use this ship,
On her first and trial trip,
Just feel free to do so.

A Girl Worth Having.

A few weeks ago I read in your paper Mr. Morehead's experience in the Plating business, in which he cleared $167.85 in a month; but I beat that, if I am a girl. I sent as he directed and got a Plater, and cleared $208.17 in one month. Can any of your readers beat this? You can get spoons, forks or jewelry to plate at every house. Send $3 to W. H. Griffith & Co., Zanesville, Ohio, and they will send you a Plater, and you can make money enough in three hours to pay for it, or address them for circulars. There is plenty of work to do in both city and country. Then why should any person be poor or out of employment with such an opportunity at hand? I hope my experience will help others as much as Mr. Morehead's did me.

Editor of the Democrat

As the DEMOCRAT is the people's paper and your humble scribe is a paying subscriber, I thought I would give you a dot or so from this part of the moral vineyard.

The farmers are about done gathering their crops, and hog killing is the order of the day. The weather is favorable now for the renters to get to their new fields of operations.

Our neighbor, J. N. Turner, has moved to his place four miles south of McKinney on the place formerly owned by H. Perkins. John Jennings and family have moved to the Nation.

Mr. Newt Bomar is in good luck, as he always is. He, in company with his hired man, went out the other morning and "Boss," his little dog, treed a family of opossums, of about half a dozen. He took them home and put them in a pen for future reference, so I suppose that 'possum raising will be a new industrial departure in this community.

Success to all and the DEMOCRAT.

GRANDPA

A Holiday Treat.

The Public Schools of the city will give an entertainment at the Heard Opera Hall, on the evening of December 22 (Monday), beginning at 8 o'clock, sharp. Admission, 25 cents.

The special object of the occasion is to help start a much-felt disideratum in our public schools—a school library. The exercises will consist of music, charades, pantomimes, drills, recitations, and will close with a carefully selected and highly interesting and amusing drama. The music will be under the supervision of Mme. Richard, and will be managed skillfully, it is needless to say. The rest of the program will be furnished by members of the schools, except three parts in the drama, which have been kindly filled by outside parties.

No pains will be spared by the teachers to make the program interesting and attractive; and when it is remembered what the object is, we have no doubt we will have a good house.

A word about this object: There is no use arguing to the intelligent people of McKinney the necessity of a good school library. By means of it, pupils can supplement the work of the school room; can pursue original investigation; and an impetus will be given to school work, and a pride and interest in the school aroused to an extent which teachers at least can appreciate. Besides, they can then have interesting and useful reading matter for vacation without cost, to the wholesome neglect of the dime novel and detective story. You who have the good of your schools at heart, help us to accomplish this much desired end. Can't some public-spirited person start the ball by making a liberal donation either of books or money? If several would donate only a few volumes, it would encourage the enterprise and help to push forward the cause.

A word about the school:. Our report for November shows the record of attendance maintained, being 96 per cent. The work done in scope and character was more satisfactory than in any month of the session.

We are crowded, the four lower rooms being full to overflowing.

Now, for the holidays: For schools composed almost wholly of local patronage, as ours, the superintendent favors a liberal Christmas holiday as the best means of holding pupils to the end of the term, and bringing them in at the first of the next. Our views have been fully met by the board, and we close on Tuesday afternoon, December 23, and open again on the following Monday week, January 5, 1891.

Parents are earnestly solicited not to withdraw pupils before the close, and to return them promptly at the reopening.

Again we urge, help us out with our library. Thanking the good people of McKinney for your loyalty to us in our arduous task of managing your schools, I am

Very respectfully,

E. M. FAUST,
Supt McKinney Public Schools.
